

TECHNICAL SHEET

Training Course: Commercial Law and Commercial Transactions

Course Title	Commercial Law and Commercial Transactions
Field	Trade and Business
Target Audience	Students, business owners, traders, and anyone interested in the field.
Training Format	In-person / Online

Course Modules

Module 01: Introduction to Commercial Law — Concept of commercial law, its sources, and scope of application.

Module 02: The Trader and Commercial Acts — Trader status, commercial acts, and conditions for acquiring trader status.

Module 03: Commercial Register and Commercial Obligations — Registration in the commercial register and the main obligations imposed on traders.

Module 04: Commercial Companies — Concept of commercial companies, their types, and the main legal rules governing them.

Module 05: Commercial Contracts and Transactions — Main commercial contracts and rules governing the conclusion and performance of commercial transactions.

Module 06: Commercial Liability and Disputes — Liability in commercial transactions and methods of settling commercial disputes.

Module 07: E-Commerce — Electronic commercial transactions and the main legal aspects related to them.

Course Objectives

- Understand the fundamentals of commercial law and commercial activities.
- Identify trader status and the main legal obligations of traders.
- Understand the legal framework governing the commercial register and commercial companies.
- Gain knowledge of commercial contracts and transactions.
- Understand commercial liability, disputes, and methods of settlement.
- Understand the main legal aspects related to e-commerce.
- Develop legal awareness in various commercial transactions and business activities.